Tracking Error

Each of the Funds listed in the table employs a “passive” investment strategy designed to replicate the performance of its benchmark index. Some of the Funds attempt to fully replicate the index by holding all of the component securities, in approximately the same proportion as their weighting in the index. Other Funds instead use an index sampling process, holding a representative sample of securities which approximates the full index in terms of key risk factors and other characteristics. The table below excludes actively-managed funds.

Tracking error measures the volatility of the return difference between each Fund and its relevant index. It is calculated as the standard deviation of the tracking difference between the Fund and the index (gross of fees for the trailing 36-month period, or since the Fund's inception if it does not have 36 months of performance history). Realised tracking error may vary from the anticipated tracking error, depending on a range of circumstances. These include transaction costs, securities lending income and withholding tax differences. The anticipated tracking error and realised tracking error are not expected to vary significantly under normal circumstances.

Fund	Tracking Error		Explanation for Divergence
	Anticipated (%)	Realised (%)
Equity
Vanguard Emerging Markets Stock Index Fund USD Acc ¹	0.500	0.553	The difference in tracking error is due to the Fund's accrual of capital gains tax for India and Brazil which are not included in the benchmark. In addition, the Fund divested its Russian holdings that had previously been valued at zero and were not part of the benchmark.
Vanguard ESG Developed Europe Index Fund EUR Acc ¹	0.300	0.322	The difference in tracking error is due to the write-off of tax reclaims, and to the fund being benchmarked against an unrestricted index until June 2024, while the portfolio was screened for securities aligned with socially responsible investment criteria. Since the tracking error is calculated over a 36-month period, it reflects 18 months during which the fund was restricted but the benchmark was not, followed by 18 months where the portfolio and index were aligned.
Vanguard ESG Developed World All Cap Equity Index Fund USD Acc ²	0.500	0.052	The Fund has tracked its benchmark within acceptable tolerances of its anticipated tracking error.

Shareholder Meetings and Voting Rights

General Meetings

All general meetings of the Company shall be held in Ireland, and at least one general meeting of the Company shall be held in each year as the Company's annual general meeting. At least 21 days' notice (inclusive of the day on which the notice is served or deemed to be served and of the day for which the notice is given) shall be given to shareholders. The notice shall specify the place, day and hour of the meeting and the terms of the resolutions to be proposed. A proxy may attend on behalf of any shareholder.

Each shareholder shall be entitled to such number of votes as shall be produced by dividing the aggregate net asset value of that shareholder's shareholding (expressed or converted into US dollars and calculated as of the "relevant record date") by one. The subscriber shareholders shall have one vote for each subscriber share held. The relevant record date for these purposes shall be a date being not more than 30 days prior to the date of the relevant general meeting of shareholders or written resolution as determined by the Directors. In relation to a resolution that in the opinion of the Directors gives or may give rise to a conflict of interest between the shareholders of any class, such resolution shall be deemed to have been duly passed only if, in lieu of being passed through a single meeting of the shareholders of such class, such resolution shall have been passed at a separate meeting of the shareholders of such classes. All votes shall be cast by a poll of shareholders present in person or by proxy at the relevant shareholder meeting or by unanimous written resolution of the shareholders.

Class Meetings—Variation of Class Rights

Under the Articles of Association of the Company (the “Articles”), the rights attached to each class of shares may, whether or not the Company is being wound up, be varied with the consent in writing of the holders of three-fourths of the issued shares of that class or with the sanction of a Special Resolution passed at a separate general meeting of the holders of the shares of that class. The rights attaching to any class of shares shall not be deemed to be varied by the creation or issue of further shares ranking pari passu with shares already in issue, unless otherwise expressly provided by the terms of issue of those shares. The provisions of the Articles relating to general meetings shall apply to every such separate general meeting except that the necessary quorum at such a meeting shall be two persons present in person or by proxy holding shares of the class in question or, at an adjourned meeting, one person holding shares of the class in question or his or her proxy.

Unless otherwise determined by an ordinary resolution of the Company in a general meeting, the number of Directors may not be less than three nor more than nine. Currently there are nine Directors, being those listed in the directory in these financial statements.

The business of the Company is managed by the Directors, who exercise all such powers of the Company which are not required to be exercised by the Company in a general meeting in accordance with the Companies Acts and the Articles. The Company’s internal audit function is carried out by the Internal Audit Department (“IAD”) of The Vanguard Group, Inc. (“VGI”). The IAD is mandated to assist the Directors in reaching a conclusion about the overall effectiveness of internal controls and provide the Directors with the information necessary to discharge their responsibilities.

The Directors have procedures in place to ensure that all relevant books of account are properly maintained and are readily available, including production of annual and half yearly financial statements. The Directors are responsible for ensuring that the books of account disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the Company and enable them to ensure that financial statements are prepared in accordance with accounting standards generally accepted in Ireland and comply with the Companies Act 2014 and the UCITS Regulations. The annual financial statements of the Company are required to be approved by the Directors. The statutory financial statements are required to be audited by the Company’s independent auditors, KPMG, who report annually to the Audit Committee on their findings.

Brown Brothers Harriman Fund Administration Services (Ireland) Limited (the “Administrator”) is appointed as an independent administrator to the Company to maintain the books and records and the Administrator is authorised and regulated by the Central Bank of Ireland and must comply with the rules imposed by the Central Bank of Ireland. In addition, the Administrator will prepare all financial statements and corresponding notes in respect of the Company together with its annual and semiannual reports.

From time to time the board also examines and evaluates the Administrator’s financial accounting and reporting routines and monitors and evaluates the external auditors’ performance, qualifications and independence. Vanguard Emerging Markets Stock Index Fund

Managed by Vanguard Asset Management, Limited.

Investment Objective

The fund seeks to track the performance of the MSCI Emerging Markets Index, a market-capitalisation-weighted index of companies in emerging markets.

Performance Summary (unaudited)

The Performance Summary does not form part of the Financial Statements.

- For the 12 months ended 31 December 2025, global financial markets performed well. The first part of the year was marked by volatility amid fears that US tariff announcements might spark a trade war and drag down global growth. Despite those concerns, markets posted solid gains, buoyed by optimism surrounding artificial intelligence, robust corporate earnings and more dovish monetary policy.
- In this environment, the fund's benchmark index returned 33.57% for the 12-month period.
- All 11 of the benchmark's industry sectors produced positive returns. Information technology and financials contributed most to performance. Communication services, materials and consumer discretionary were also among the largest contributors.
- By region, China, South Korea and Taiwan contributed most to performance. Among the largest markets, Saudi Arabia detracted the most.

All of the returns in this report represent past performance, which is not a guarantee of future results that may be achieved by the fund. For performance data current to the most recent month-end, which may be higher or lower than that cited, visit our website at <https://global.vanguard.com>. Note, too, that both investment returns and principal value can fluctuate widely, so an investor's shares, when sold, could be worth more or less than their original cost.

* The tracking difference between the fund return and the index return over a stated period of time can be attributed to a number of factors, including, without limitation, small differences in weightings, trading activity, swing pricing, transaction costs and differences in the valuation and withholding tax treatment between the fund and the index vendor.

Vanguard ESG Developed Europe Index Fund

Managed by Vanguard Asset Management, Limited.

Investment Objective

The fund aims to provide long-term growth of capital by seeking to achieve the performance of the FTSE Developed Europe Choice Index, a market-capitalisation-weighted index of common stocks of large and mid-sized companies in developed countries in Europe.

Performance Summary (unaudited)

- For the 12 months ended 31 December 2025, global financial markets performed well. The first part of the year was marked by volatility amid fears that U.S. tariff announcements might spark a trade war and drag down global growth. Despite those concerns, markets posted solid gains, buoyed by optimism surrounding artificial intelligence, robust corporate earnings and more dovish monetary policy.
- In this environment, the fund's benchmark returned 17.27%. The fund's return differed from that of its benchmark for the period owing in part to the treatment of withholding tax.
- All 11 of the benchmark's industry sectors contributed positively to returns. Financials contributed the most, followed by industrials, technology and utilities.
- From a market perspective, Germany, Switzerland, France and Spain were the largest contributors. Denmark was the lone detractor.

Benchmark returns in the commentary above are in euros.

All of the returns in this report represent past performance, which is not a guarantee of future results that may be achieved by the fund. For performance data current to the most recent month-end, which may be higher or lower than that cited, visit our website at <https://global.vanguard.com>. Note, too, that both investment returns and principal value can fluctuate widely, so an investor's shares, when sold, could be worth more or less than their original cost.

* The tracking difference between the fund return and the index return over a stated period of time can be attributed to a number of factors, including, without limitation, small differences in weightings, trading activity, swing pricing, transaction costs and differences in the valuation and withholding tax treatment between the fund and the index vendor.

Vanguard ESG Developed World All Cap Equity Index Fund

Managed by Vanguard Asset Management, Limited.

Investment Objective

The Fund seeks to provide long-term growth of capital by seeking to achieve the performance of the FTSE Developed All Cap Choice Index.

Performance Summary (unaudited)

- For the 12 months ended 31 December 2025, global financial markets performed well. The first part of the year was marked by volatility amid fears that U.S. tariff announcements might spark a trade war and drag down global growth. Despite those concerns, markets posted solid gains, buoyed by optimism surrounding artificial intelligence, robust corporate earnings and more dovish monetary policy.
- The fund's benchmark index returned 20.47% for the 12 months. The index is constructed from the FTSE Developed All Cap Index, which is screened for certain environmental, social and corporate governance criteria by the sponsor of the index, which is independent of Vanguard.
- All 11 of the index's industry sectors posted positive returns. Technology, the largest sector by weight, contributed the most to the index's returns, followed by financials. Together, these two sectors accounted for more than half of the index's overall return.
- US stocks, which accounted for more than two-thirds of the index, contributed the most to returns. Japan was also a notable contributor. Denmark detracted slightly.

All of the returns in this report represent past performance, which is not a guarantee of future results that may be achieved by the fund. For performance data current to the most recent month-end, which may be higher or lower than that cited, visit our website at <https://global.vanguard.com>. Note, too, that both investment returns and principal value can fluctuate widely, so an investor's shares, when sold, could be worth more or less than their original cost.

* The tracking difference between the fund return and the index return over a stated period of time can be attributed to a number of factors, including, without limitation, small differences in weightings, trading activity, swing pricing, transaction costs and differences in the valuation and withholding tax treatment between the fund and the index vendor.

Performance Summary (unaudited)

The Performance Summary does not form part of the Financial Statements.

- For the 12 months ended 31 December 2025, global financial markets performed well. The first part of the year was marked by volatility amid fears that US tariff announcements might spark a trade war and drag down global growth. Despite those concerns, markets posted solid gains, buoyed by optimism surrounding artificial intelligence, robust corporate earnings and more dovish monetary policy.
- In this environment, the fund's benchmark index returned 24.91%.
- All 11 of the benchmark index's industry sectors produced positive returns. Technology, financials and consumer discretionary contributed most.
- By market, Chinese and Taiwanese stocks, which combined accounted for more than half of the index, contributed most to returns.

All of the returns in this report represent past performance, which is not a guarantee of future results that may be achieved by the fund. For performance data current to the most recent month-end, which may be higher or lower than that cited, visit our website at <https://global.vanguard.com>. Note, too, that both investment returns and principal value can fluctuate widely, so an investor's shares, when sold, could be worth more or less than their original cost.

Vanguard European Stock Index Fund

Managed by Vanguard Asset Management, Limited.

Investment Objective

The fund seeks to provide long-term growth of capital by tracking the performance of the MSCI Europe Index, which is made up of common stocks of companies located in Europe.

Performance Summary (unaudited)

The Performance Summary does not form part of the Financial Statements.

- For the 12 months ended 31 December 2025, global financial markets performed well. The first part of the year was marked by volatility amid fears that U.S. tariff announcements might spark a trade war and drag down global growth. Despite those concerns, markets posted solid gains, buoyed by optimism surrounding artificial intelligence, robust corporate earnings and more dovish monetary policy.
- The fund's benchmark returned 35.41% for the 12 months. The fund outperformed its benchmark due to the treatment of withholding tax.
- All 11 of the index's industry sectors produced positive returns. Financial stocks contributed the most, followed by industrials and health care.
- Among markets, all but one contributed positively to returns. The United Kingdom, which makes up more than a fifth of the benchmark weighting, contributed most, followed by Germany, France and Switzerland. Denmark was the lone detractor.

All of the returns in this report represent past performance, which is not a guarantee of future results that may be achieved by the fund. For performance data current to the most recent month-end, which may be higher or lower than that cited, visit our website at <https://global.vanguard.com>. Note, too, that both investment returns and principal value can fluctuate widely, so an investor's shares, when sold, could be worth more or less than their original cost.

Vanguard Eurozone Stock Index Fund

Managed by Vanguard Asset Management, Limited.

Investment Objective

The Fund seeks to provide long-term growth of capital by tracking the performance of the MSCI EMU Index, a market-capitalisation-weighted index of common stocks designed to capture 85% of the underlying Euro Zone countries' market capitalisation.

Performance Summary (unaudited)

The Performance Summary does not form part of the Financial Statements.

- For the 12 months ended 31 December 2025, global financial markets performed well. The first part of the year was marked by volatility amid fears that U.S. tariff announcements might spark a trade war and drag down global growth. Despite those concerns, markets posted solid gains, buoyed by optimism surrounding artificial intelligence, robust corporate earnings and more dovish monetary policy.
- In this environment, the fund's benchmark returned 23.70%. The fund outperformed its benchmark due to the treatment of withholding tax.
- All 11 of the index's industry sectors posted positive returns. Financials, which make up almost a quarter of the benchmark, contributed the most. Other healthy contributors included industrials, utilities and information technology.
- All markets represented in the index contributed positively. Germany, which makes up more than 28% of the index, contributed the most, followed by Spain, France and Italy.

All of the returns in this report represent past performance, which is not a guarantee of future results that may be achieved by the fund. For performance data current to the most recent month-end, which may be higher or lower than that cited, visit our website at <https://global.vanguard.com>. Note, too, that both investment returns and principal value can fluctuate widely, so an investor's shares, when sold, could be worth more or less than their original cost.

Vanguard Global Small-Cap Index Fund

Managed by Vanguard Asset Management, Limited.

Investment Objective

The fund seeks to provide long-term growth of capital by tracking the performance of the MSCI World Small Cap Index, a market-capitalisation-weighted index of small-cap companies in developed countries.

Performance Summary (unaudited)

- For the 12 months ended 31 December 2025, global financial markets performed well. The first part of the year was marked by volatility amid fears that US tariff announcements might spark a trade war and drag down global growth. Despite those concerns, markets posted solid gains, buoyed by optimism surrounding artificial intelligence, robust corporate earnings and more dovish monetary policy.
- In this environment, the fund's benchmark index returned 19.88% for the 12-month period.
- Ten of the benchmark's 11 industry sectors produced positive returns. Industrials, materials and financials contributed most to the index's return.
- US stocks, which accounted for more than one-half of the index weighting, contributed most to results while underperforming the benchmark as a whole. Japan and Canada were among the other markets making strong contributions to index performance.

All of the returns in this report represent past performance, which is not a guarantee of future results that may be achieved by the fund. For performance data current to the most recent month-end, which may be higher or lower than that cited, visit our website at <https://global.vanguard.com>. Note, too, that both investment returns and principal value can fluctuate widely, so an investor's shares, when sold, could be worth more or less than their original cost.

Vanguard Global Stock Index Fund

Managed by Vanguard Asset Management, Limited.

Investment Objective

The fund seeks to provide long-term growth of capital by tracking the performance of the MSCI World Index, a market-capitalisation-weighted index of common stocks of companies in developed countries.

Performance Summary (unaudited)

- For the 12 months ended 31 December 2025, global financial markets performed well. The first part of the year was marked by volatility amid fears that US tariff announcements might spark a trade war and drag down global growth. Despite those concerns, markets posted solid gains, buoyed by optimism surrounding artificial intelligence, robust corporate earnings and more dovish monetary policy.
- In this environment, the fund's benchmark index returned 21.09% for the 12-month period.
- All 11 of the benchmark's industry sectors produced positive returns. Information technology – the most heavily weighted sector – contributed the most to returns, followed by financials, industrials and communication services.
- US stocks, which accounted for more than two-thirds of the index weighting, contributed most to results while underperforming the benchmark as a whole. Japan, the United Kingdom and Canada were among the other markets making strong contributions to index performance.

All of the returns in this report represent past performance, which is not a guarantee of future results that may be achieved by the fund. For performance data current to the most recent month-end, which may be higher or lower than that cited, visit our website at <https://global.vanguard.com>. Note, too, that both investment returns and principal value can fluctuate widely, so an investor's shares, when sold, could be worth more or less than their original cost.

* The tracking difference between the fund return and the index return over a stated period of time can be attributed to a number of factors, including, without limitation, small differences in weightings, trading activity, swing pricing, transaction costs and differences in the valuation and withholding tax treatment between the fund and the index vendor.

Investment Objective

The fund seeks to track the performance of the MSCI Japan Index, which emphasises stocks of companies located in Japan.

Performance Summary (unaudited)

- For the 12 months ended 31 December 2025, global financial markets performed well. The first part of the year was marked by volatility amid fears that U.S. tariff announcements might spark a trade war and drag down global growth. Despite those concerns, markets posted solid gains, buoyed by optimism surrounding artificial intelligence, robust corporate earnings and more dovish monetary policy. The European Central Bank and the Bank of England each cut rates four times, while the Federal Reserve lowered rates three times.
- In this environment, Japanese equities ended the year higher overall. The fund's benchmark index returned 9.86% for the 12 months.
- Almost all of the index's 11 industry sectors posted positive returns. Industrials, financials and information technology contributed most to the index's result. Health care was the most notable of the few detractors.

All of the returns in this report represent past performance, which is not a guarantee of future results that may be achieved by the fund. For performance data current to the most recent month-end, which may be higher or lower than that cited, visit our website at <https://global.vanguard.com>. Note, too, that both investment returns and principal value can fluctuate widely, so an investor's shares, when sold, could be worth more or less than their original cost.

* The tracking difference between the fund return and the index return over a stated period of time can be attributed to a number of factors, including, without limitation, small differences in weightings, trading activity, swing pricing, transaction costs and differences in the valuation and withholding tax treatment between the fund and the index vendor.

The Central Bank of Ireland requires a schedule of material changes in the composition of the portfolio during the year. These are defined as aggregate purchases of a security exceeding 1% of the total value of purchases for the year and aggregate disposals greater than 1% of the total value of sales. At a minimum, the largest 20 purchases and 20 sales must be shown; all purchases and sales must be shown if there are fewer than 20. A full listing of the portfolio changes for the year is available, upon request, at no extra cost from the Administrator.

Investment Objective

The fund seeks to provide long-term growth of capital by tracking the performance of the MSCI Pacific ex-Japan Index, which is made up of common stocks of companies located in the Pacific region.

Performance Summary (unaudited)

- For the 12 months ended 31 December 2025, global financial markets performed well. The first part of the year was marked by volatility amid fears that U.S. tariff announcements might spark a trade war and drag down global growth. Despite those concerns, markets posted solid gains, buoyed by optimism surrounding artificial intelligence, robust corporate earnings and more dovish monetary policy. The European Central Bank and the Bank of England each cut rates four times, while the Federal Reserve lowered rates three times.
- Pacific markets excluding Japan finished the year higher overall. The fund's benchmark index returned 6.35% for the 12 months.
- Results were positive in eight of the index's 11 sectors. Financials, materials and industrials contributed the most to the index's return. Health care, information technology and energy detracted.
- Hong Kong and Singapore contributed most to results. New Zealand detracted slightly from the index's return.

All of the returns in this report represent past performance, which is not a guarantee of future results that may be achieved by the fund. For performance data current to the most recent month-end, which may be higher or lower than that cited, visit our website at <https://global.vanguard.com>. Note, too, that both investment returns and principal value can fluctuate widely, so an investor's shares, when sold, could be worth more or less than their original cost.

* The tracking difference between the fund return and the index return over a stated period of time can be attributed to a number of factors, including, without limitation, small differences in weightings, trading activity, swing pricing, transaction costs and differences in the valuation and withholding tax treatment between the fund and the index vendor.

Vanguard U.S. 500 Stock Index Fund

Managed by Vanguard Global Advisers, LLC.

Investment Objective

The fund seeks to track the performance of the S&P 500 Index, a widely recognised benchmark of US stock market performance that is dominated by the stocks of large US companies.

Performance Summary (unaudited)

- For the 12 months ended 31 December 2025, global financial markets performed well. The first part of the year was marked by volatility amid fears that US tariff announcements might spark a trade war and drag down global growth. Despite those concerns, markets posted solid gains, buoyed by optimism surrounding artificial intelligence, robust corporate earnings and more dovish monetary policy.
- In this environment, the fund's benchmark index returned 17.43% for the 12-month period.
- All 11 of the benchmark's industry sectors produced positive returns, with seven posting double-digit gains. Information technology was the most heavily weighted sector in the index and contributed the most to results. Communication services, financials and industrials also made strong contributions to index performance.

All of the returns in this report represent past performance, which is not a guarantee of future results that may be achieved by the fund. For performance data current to the most recent month-end, which may be higher or lower than that cited, visit our website at <https://global.vanguard.com>. Note, too, that both investment returns and principal value can fluctuate widely, so an investor's shares, when sold, could be worth more or less than their original cost.

Vanguard U.S. Opportunities Fund

Investment Objective

The fund seeks to provide long-term growth of capital by investing in stocks with above-average earnings growth potential that is not reflected in their current market prices.

Performance Summary (unaudited)

- For the 12 months ended 31 December 2025, global financial markets performed well. The first part of the year was marked by volatility amid fears that U.S. tariff announcements might spark a trade war and drag down global growth. Despite those concerns, markets posted solid gains, buoyed by optimism surrounding artificial intelligence, robust corporate earnings and more dovish monetary policy. The European Central Bank and the Bank of England each cut rates four times, while the Federal Reserve lowered rates three times.
- In this environment, the fund's benchmark returned 16.71% for the 12 months.
- All 11 of the index's industry sectors produced positive returns. Information technology, which accounted for more than 25% of the index, contributed the most to the index's performance, along with communication services and financials. Real estate, consumer staples and energy contributed the least.
- The fund outperformed its benchmark by a wide margin, largely thanks to selection in information technology.

Benchmark returns in the commentary above are in US dollars.

Vanguard 20+ Year Euro Treasury Index Fund

Managed by Vanguard Asset Management, Limited.

Investment Objective

The fund seeks to provide returns consistent with the performance of the Bloomberg Euro Treasury 20+ Year Bond Index, a market-weighted index designed to reflect the total universe of euro-denominated euro zone treasury securities with maturities of at least 20 years and a minimum credit rating of AA–.

Performance Summary (unaudited)

- For the 12 months ended 31 December 2025, global financial markets performed well. The first part of the year was marked by volatility amid fears that US tariff announcements might spark a trade war and drag down global growth. Despite those concerns, markets posted solid gains, buoyed by optimism surrounding artificial intelligence, robust corporate earnings and more dovish monetary policy. The European Central Bank and the Bank of England each cut rates four times, while the Federal Reserve lowered rates three times.
- The fund's benchmark index returned –12.31% for the 12-month period.
- All markets in the index posted negative returns, with Austrian and German bonds performing the worst.
- Bonds with maturities between 20 and 30 years declined, but the longest-dated issues (30 or more years) performed even worse.
- By credit quality, AAA-rated bonds lost ground and AA-rated bonds declined to a lesser degree.

All of the returns in this report represent past performance, which is not a guarantee of future results that may be achieved by the fund. For performance data current to the most recent month-end, which may be higher or lower than that cited, visit our website at <https://global.vanguard.com>. Note, too, that both investment returns and principal value can fluctuate widely, so an investor's shares, when sold, could be worth more or less than their original cost.

* The tracking difference between the fund return and the index return over a stated period of time can be attributed to a number of factors, including, without limitation, small differences in weightings, trading activity, swing pricing, transaction costs and differences in the valuation and withholding tax treatment between the fund and the index vendor.

The Central Bank of Ireland requires a schedule of material changes in the composition of the portfolio during the year. These are defined as aggregate purchases of a security exceeding 1% of the total value of purchases for the year and aggregate disposals greater than 1% of the total value of sales. At a minimum, the largest 20 purchases and 20 sales must be shown; all purchases and sales must be shown if there are fewer than 20. A full listing of the portfolio changes for the year is available, upon request, at no extra cost from the Administrator.

Vanguard Emerging Markets Bond Fund

Managed by Vanguard Global Advisers, LLC.

Investment Objective

The Fund seeks to provide total return while generating a moderate level of income by investing primarily in bonds of issuers in emerging-market countries.

Performance Summary (unaudited)

The Performance Summary does not form part of the Financial Statements. The fund is actively managed and seeks to invest as described in the prospectus. The following performance information shows how the fund's returns compare with those of the J.P. Morgan EMBI Global Diversified Index, a market index that has investment characteristics similar to those of the fund.

- For the 12 months ended 31 December 2025, global financial markets performed well. The first part of the year was marked by volatility amid fears that US tariff announcements might spark a trade war and drag down global growth. Despite those concerns, markets posted solid gains, buoyed by optimism surrounding artificial intelligence, robust corporate earnings and more dovish monetary policy. The European Central Bank and the Bank of England each cut rates four times, while the Federal Reserve lowered rates three times.
- For the period, the fund lagged its benchmark, which returned 14.30%.
- The fund's asset allocation by region, particularly its underweight allocation to Venezuela and Lebanon – which posted strong returns for the year – detracted from relative performance. An overweight allocation to Ukraine also weighed on results. On the other hand, security selection added value, particularly in Argentina, the Dominican Republic and Mexico.

The Central Bank of Ireland requires a schedule of material changes in the composition of the portfolio during the year. These are defined as aggregate purchases of a security exceeding 1% of the total value of purchases for the year and aggregate disposals greater than 1% of the total value of sales. At a minimum, the largest 20 purchases and 20 sales must be shown; all purchases and sales must be shown if there are fewer than 20. A full listing of the portfolio changes for the year is available, upon request, at no extra cost from the Administrator.

Vanguard ESG Global Corporate Bond Index Fund

Managed by Vanguard Asset Management, Limited.

Investment Objective

The fund seeks to provide returns consistent with the performance of the Bloomberg MSCI Corporate Float-Adjusted Bond Screened Index, a multi-currency benchmark that includes investment grade corporate fixed-rate bonds from both developed and emerging markets issuers.

Performance Summary (unaudited)

- For the 12 months ended 31 December 2025, global financial markets performed well. The first part of the year was marked by volatility amid fears that US tariff announcements might spark a trade war and drag down global growth. Despite those concerns, markets posted solid gains, buoyed by optimism surrounding artificial intelligence, robust corporate earnings and more dovish monetary policy. The European Central Bank and the Bank of England each cut rates four times, while the Federal Reserve lowered rates three times.
- The fund's benchmark returned 6.82% for the 12-month period.
- By market, the United States, which has the largest weighting in the index, outperformed the index as a whole, as did the United Kingdom. Germany, Sweden and France were among the laggards.
- By sector, bonds issued by financial institutions fared better than those issued by industrial companies and utilities.
- By credit quality, bonds on the bottom rung of the investment-grade ladder fared better than their higher-rated counterparts. And by maturity, intermediate-term bonds fared best.

All of the returns in this report represent past performance, which is not a guarantee of future results that may be achieved by the fund. For performance data current to the most recent month-end, which may be higher or lower than that cited, visit our website at <https://global.vanguard.com>. Note, too, that both investment returns and principal value can fluctuate widely, so an investor's shares, when sold, could be worth more or less than their original cost.

* The tracking difference between the fund return and the index return over a stated period of time can be attributed to a number of factors, including, without limitation, small differences in weightings, trading activity, swing pricing, transaction costs and differences in the valuation and withholding tax treatment between the fund and the index vendor.

The Central Bank of Ireland requires a schedule of material changes in the composition of the portfolio during the year. These are defined as aggregate purchases of a security exceeding 1% of the total value of purchases for the year and aggregate disposals greater than 1% of the total value of sales. At a minimum, the largest 20 purchases and 20 sales must be shown; all purchases and sales must be shown if there are fewer than 20. A full listing of the portfolio changes for the year is available, upon request, at no extra cost from the Administrator.

Vanguard Euro Government Bond Index Fund

Managed by Vanguard Asset Management, Limited.

Investment Objective

The fund seeks to provide returns consistent with the performance of the Bloomberg Euro Government Float Adjusted Bond Index, a market-weighted index designed to reflect the total universe of euro-denominated euro zone treasury and government-related securities with maturities greater than 1 year.

Performance Summary (unaudited)

- For the 12 months ended 31 December 2025, global financial markets performed well. The first part of the year was marked by volatility amid fears that US tariff announcements might spark a trade war and drag down global growth. Despite those concerns, markets posted solid gains, buoyed by optimism surrounding artificial intelligence, robust corporate earnings and more dovish monetary policy. The European Central Bank and the Bank of England each cut rates four times, while the Federal Reserve lowered rates three times.
- The fund's benchmark index returned 0.66% for the 12-month period.
- By market, results were mixed. Among the markets with relatively heavy index weightings, Italy had the highest return, at 3.21%, while Germany had the lowest, at -0.91%.
- By maturity, shorter-term bonds fared well. Those with maturities of 15 years or more reported negative returns.
- By credit quality, lower-rated bonds outperformed higher-rated bonds.

All of the returns in this report represent past performance, which is not a guarantee of future results that may be achieved by the fund. For performance data current to the most recent month-end, which may be higher or lower than that cited, visit our website at <https://global.vanguard.com>. Note, too, that both investment returns and principal value can fluctuate widely, so an investor's shares, when sold, could be worth more or less than their original cost.

* The tracking difference between the fund return and the index return over a stated period of time can be attributed to a number of factors, including, without limitation, small differences in weightings, trading activity, swing pricing, transaction costs and differences in the valuation and withholding tax treatment between the fund and the index vendor.

The Central Bank of Ireland requires a schedule of material changes in the composition of the portfolio during the year. These are defined as aggregate purchases of a security exceeding 1% of the total value of purchases for the year and aggregate disposals greater than 1% of the total value of sales. At a minimum, the largest 20 purchases and 20 sales must be shown; all purchases and sales must be shown if there are fewer than 20. A full listing of the portfolio changes for the year is available, upon request, at no extra cost from the Administrator.

Managed by Vanguard Asset Management, Limited.

Investment Objective

The fund seeks to provide returns consistent with the performance of the Bloomberg EUR Non-Government Float Adjusted Bond Index, a market-weighted index of euro-denominated, investment-grade fixed income securities with maturities greater than 1 year and a minimum issue size of EUR 300 million, but excluding certain sectors as set out below. The Index includes securities issued by corporate, securitised, and government-related/supranational entities (including entities such as the European Union), but excludes treasury and government related entities from euro zone countries.

Performance Summary (unaudited)

The Performance Summary does not form part of the Financial Statements.

- For the 12 months ended 31 December 2025, global financial markets performed well. The first part of the year was marked by volatility amid fears that US tariff announcements might spark a trade war and drag down global growth. Despite those concerns, markets posted solid gains, buoyed by optimism surrounding artificial intelligence, robust corporate earnings and more dovish monetary policy. The European Central Bank and the Bank of England each cut rates four times, while the Federal Reserve lowered rates three times.
- The fund's benchmark index returned 2.29% for the 12-month period.
- Returns were positive across all markets in the index except for Taiwan, which had a light weighting and limited impact.
- By maturity, returns were highest among bonds with maturities of up to 10 years. Those with maturities of 15 years or longer declined in value.
- Bonds across the credit spectrum posted positive results, but bonds with lower ratings performed better than those of higher quality.

All of the returns in this report represent past performance, which is not a guarantee of future results that may be achieved by the fund. For performance data current to the most recent month-end, which may be higher or lower than that cited, visit our website at <https://global.vanguard.com>. Note, too, that both investment returns and principal value can fluctuate widely, so an investor's shares, when sold, could be worth more or less than their original cost.

* The tracking difference between the fund return and the index return over a stated period of time can be attributed to a number of factors, including, without limitation, small differences in weightings, trading activity, swing pricing, transaction costs and differences in the valuation and withholding tax treatment between the fund and the index vendor.

These are defined as aggregate purchases of a security exceeding 1% of the total value of purchases for the year and aggregate disposals greater than 1% of the total value of sales. At a minimum, the largest 20 purchases and 20 sales must be shown; all purchases and sales must be shown if there are fewer than 20. A full listing of the portfolio changes for the year is available, upon request, at no extra cost from the Administrator.

Vanguard Eurozone Inflation-Linked Bond Index Fund

Managed by Vanguard Asset Management, Limited.

Investment Objective

The fund seeks to provide returns consistent with the performance of the Bloomberg Global Inflation-Linked: Eurozone – Euro CPI Index, a market-weighted index of euro-denominated inflation-linked government securities within the euro zone, designed to serve as a hedge against inflation in the euro zone region, with maturities greater than 1 year.

Performance Summary (unaudited)

- For the 12 months ended 31 December 2025, global financial markets performed well. The first part of the year was marked by volatility amid fears that US tariff announcements might spark a trade war and drag down global growth. Despite those concerns, markets posted solid gains, buoyed by optimism surrounding artificial intelligence, robust corporate earnings and more dovish monetary policy. The European Central Bank and the Bank of England each cut rates four times, while the Federal Reserve lowered rates three times.
- The fund's benchmark index returned 1.06% for the 12 months ended 31 December 2025.
- By country, bonds in France and Germany lost value, but these results were offset by gains in Italy and Spain.
- Bonds of most maturities added to returns, except for those in the 20- to 30-year category, which experienced steep declines.
- By quality, lower-rated bonds performed better than their higher-rated counterparts.

All of the returns in this report represent past performance, which is not a guarantee of future results that may be achieved by the fund. For performance data current to the most recent month-end, which may be higher or lower than that cited, visit our website at <https://global.vanguard.com>. Note, too, that both investment returns and principal value can fluctuate widely, so an investor's shares, when sold, could be worth more or less than their original cost.

The Central Bank of Ireland requires a schedule of material changes in the composition of the portfolio during the year. These are defined as aggregate purchases of a security exceeding 1% of the total value of purchases for the year and aggregate disposals greater than 1% of the total value of sales. At a minimum, the largest 20 purchases and 20 sales must be shown; all purchases and sales must be shown if there are fewer than 20. A full listing of the portfolio changes for the year is available, upon request, at no extra cost from the Administrator.

Vanguard Global Bond Index Fund

Managed by Vanguard Asset Management, Limited.

Investment Objective

The fund seeks to provide returns consistent with the performance of the Bloomberg Global Aggregate Float Adjusted and Scaled Index, a market-weighted index of global government, government-related agency, corporate and securitised fixed income investments with maturities greater than 1 year.

Performance Summary (unaudited)

- For the 12 months ended 31 December 2025, global financial markets performed well. The first part of the year was marked by volatility amid fears that U.S. tariff announcements might spark a trade war and drag down global growth. Despite those concerns, markets posted solid gains, buoyed by optimism surrounding artificial intelligence, robust corporate earnings and more dovish monetary policy. The European Central Bank and the Bank of England each cut rates four times, while the Federal Reserve lowered rates three times.
- The fund's benchmark index returned 5.23% for the 12 months.
- The United States, which has the largest weighting in the index, outperformed the index as a whole, as did the United Kingdom and Italy. Among other large markets in the index, Japan, Germany, Spain and Canada underperformed.
- By sector, bonds issued by financial institutions fared better than those issued by and industrial companies and utilities.
- Short-term bonds tended to perform the best. It was a mixed picture by credit quality, with the lowest-rated bonds in the index posting the highest returns, followed by the second-highest-rated bonds.

All of the returns in this report represent past performance, which is not a guarantee of future results that may be achieved by the fund. For performance data current to the most recent month-end, which may be higher or lower than that cited, visit our website at <https://global.vanguard.com>. Note, too, that both investment returns and principal value can fluctuate widely, so an investor's shares, when sold, could be worth more or less than their original cost.

* The tracking difference between the fund return and the index return over a stated period of time can be attributed to a number of factors, including, without limitation, small differences in weightings, trading activity, swing pricing, transaction costs and differences in the valuation and withholding tax treatment between the fund and the index vendor.
